Administrative and Public Management Studies – APMS – Series, No.1/2012

Coordinator: Prof. Dr. Lucica Matei

The Administrative and Public Management Studies – APMS – Series is designated to promote the theoretical and empirical research concerning the contemporary developments of the processes and phenomena of public administration and management. Based mainly on the studies accomplished in doctoral schools of public administration and management from European universities, APMS aims to valorise and disseminate them in view to increase the level and qualitative standards of the specialised research. APMS Series will select and publish annually 4-6 outstanding publications, accompanied by reviews, designated to integrate them into the European and international flow of publications in the field of public administration and management. APMS Series is open to collaboration with other publications or collections in view to achieve joint projects.
